Land Use Actions for the Future of Our County

You are invited to a virtual brown bag lunch seminar series. Reserve your spot now at: https://www.cvent.com/d/t7qmg3/4W

Learn more about balanced land use – making connections across agriculture, economic development, open space, housing and urban development. This is your opportunity to hear a variety of perspectives and be part of the conversation to help create solutions.

Register now and you will receive a complementary bag lunch, provided by Hummavore at Local Roots in Wooster, OH. Lunches can be picked up the day of the seminar; More details will be sent on lunch pick-up the week of the seminar. There is no fee for participating.

Land Use Actions: Agriculture and Food

September 24, 12 noon to 1:30 pm, Speakers:

- Roger Baker, Farm Bureau State Trustee and previous Wayne County Farm Bureau President
- Julia Freedgood, American Farmland Trust
- Shoshanah Inwood, Ohio State University / OARDC

Land Use Actions: Economy and Land

October 22, 12 noon to 1:30 pm. Speakers:

- Melinda Hill, OSU Extension
- Pete Wearstler, Wayne County Planning Department
- Tom Pukys, Wayne Economic Development Council
- Jonathan Ferbrache, Fairfield Soil and Water Conservation District

Land Use Actions: Tools and Solutions

November 19, 12 noon to 1:30 pm. Speakers:

- Elizabeth Schuster, Sustainable Economies
- Andy McDowell, Western Reserve Land Conservancy
- Shawn Starlin, Team NEO
- Denny Jordan, Wayne County Park District
- Jonathan Millea, City of Wooster

Land Use Actions: Housing and Open Space

December 3, 12 noon to 1:30 pm. Speakers:

- Brian Gwin, Ohio State University/OARDC
- Forbes Lipschitz, Ohio State University
- Jennifer Syx, InSITE Advisory Group
- Amy Brennan, The Nature Conservancy of Ohio

Continuing education credits are available for those who attend all 4 seminars in the series.