

Universities Fighting World Hunger Summit 2020
Call for Oral Presentations and Posters

ORAL PRESENTATION AND POSTER OBJECTIVES:

The overall goal of the UFWH Summit 2020 is to bring together current and future leaders to see a world without hunger. Students, administrators, faculty, staff, and community partners will network and share ideas that lead to actions and impact at the campus, community, and global level. We are seeking oral presentation and poster submissions from students, faculty, staff, and community organizations so that we may share solutions to accomplish our common goals.

Global Hunger Track:

We are seeking oral presentations and posters that share initiatives and research related to improved health outcomes at the global level. Examples include study abroad programs, international research projects, and/or community-based efforts that provide solutions to reduce the global burden of hunger.

Domestic Hunger Track:

We are seeking oral presentations and posters highlighting efforts in North America that effectively reduce the burden of domestic hunger and food insecurity. We would like to learn about experiential learning activities and community- and/or research-based efforts that reduce the burden of domestic hunger.

Campus Hunger Track:

We are seeking oral presentations and posters related to your college or university's efforts to address food insecurity and related issues on campus. We invite you to share how you started, sustained, and/or evaluated student, faculty, or staff-led initiatives on your campus to reduce food insecurity.
