

2018 RAYMOND A. SCHINDLER EXCELLENCE IN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT EXTENSION AWARD

SUSAN COLBERT has demonstrated a record of excellence in creative and scholarly work:

- She has been responsible in part for acquiring program funding from as many as two dozen different agencies, organizations and foundations, including for example: U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, U.S. Department of Commerce, J.P. Morgan Chase, Fifth Third Bank Foundation, Huntington Foundation, and United Way of Central Ohio.

SUSAN has demonstrated a record of excellence in teaching:

- She has engaged local organizations and both youth and adult audiences in programs that have strengthened workforce skills, improved rates of home ownership, and increased financial and food security.

SUSAN has steadfastly served:

- the land-grant mission, connecting the wide variety of resources to the populations needing them most.
- the community, engaging scores of residents of the Weinland Park neighborhood through partnerships she has cultivated with her dedication, perseverance, and commitment to helping others.
